WEDDING BELLS.

Marriage of Mr. Geo. W. Maffet and Miss | and Amelia Mckuhn. Lizzie C. Kable.

On last Thursday evening, Jame 26th, occurred the marriage at the Cheyenne Mission of Mr. Geo. W. Maffet and Miss Lizzie C. Kable, Early in the evening carriage after carriage loaded with Agency people were seen wending their way to the Cheyenne school, which is beautifully located in a jack-oak grove three | Maifet. miles north of the Agency, to witness the event. The weather could not have been more perfect for the occasion, a shower of with silver handle-Lizzie Miner rain having fallen in the morning, which laid the dust and refreshed the air, The crowd having arrived, the ringing of the bell told that the time had arrived; and, all gathering in the large reception room, the bridal couple were soon ushered in by the officiating elergy man, and in less time than it would take to write it, were made

Rev. Haury, Memorite missionary, officiated, the form used being the Methodist ceremony with ring. The ceremony was very solemn and impressive all the way through, so quiet and attentive was the gadience that the full Grandma Atherton of a pin could have been easily heard. The bride was becomingly attired in a neat blue Rhadamese, trimmed with cameo buttons and oricutal lace collar (with solitaire diamond piu) and sleeves; no head dross, but her own natural hair, which was arranged according to the latest mode. The groom wore a neatly fitting conventional black suit, and it was the opinion of all that the couple Tena Hirschler. never looked more beautiful than on their wedding night, as neither could have been more appropriately attired for the occasion. After the ceremony, the happy couple received the warm congratulations and best wishes of all present, amid the hearty good cheer of a large company. The room in which the event took place is a spacious one, and pleasantly accommodated the large assemblage present. It was appropriately decorated for the occasion, among the heautiful displays was suspended from the ceiling an immense mas suspended from the celling an immense of Milion's Paradise Lost," Illustrated by Gustave floral bell, immediately under which the Dore—Co and Mrs Juo D Miles. bride's name changed from

In front stood the congratulatory table, upon | C E Shulze. it being a large floral harp with the word in gill letters "Congratulation;" on the wall to the rear hung a huge floral horse-shoe; the emblem "Good luck," On the table were also displayed the congratulatory cards and leiters from both the relatives and friends of the bride and groom, expressing the high esteem in which they are held and warm wishes for their wedded life. There was a perfect show. Benaphil and William A Hemphil. er of them from far and near. An unusual number of claborate and expensive gifts were presented, the articles and names of the donors of which appear below. In a separate room were displayed the presents, and to behold them was a feast to the eye, to say the

The company was treated to refreshments in piles mountains high, the workers of the school having prepared them for the occasion in an elegant and substantial way. The many delicacies spread were heartly enjoyed by all. About twelve o'clock the company dispersed, and the newly wedded pair in their own conveyance strove testhelr home at the Agency and entered upon the duties of married life-just as if they had had years of experience. The residence which they occupy is a cosy course of five rooms, very combatt able and convenient and firmished with all mirable teste. To put it in a few words, Mr. and Mrs. Market are happy in their surround ings, for which they are to be congratulated.

It is scarcely necessary to say maything per sonally about either the bride or groom of this happy alliance, as the former las I en three years principal teacher of the Cheyeane school, and is known as a lady of unusual high tainty to a long, happy and comfortable resisocial qualities, while the latter, beside being proprietor of this paper, has been book ther popular husband keeper in Capt, Connell's trading store for several years, and is recognized as a gentleman of the truest moral character; and, as | Five head of milk cows were accidently ties being well qualified in every way for the the upper tord of the I bur, and the earth unstorm may beat upon them on their sea of stray bullets of the military while at pargumatrimone, but that the skies hear he sheets openion.
